An Anglo-Chinese Dictionary, published at the Daily Press Office, Hongkong.

FOR SCOPE and practical service this work stands unrivalled. All the new words which the Chinese have of late years been compelled to coin to express the numerous objects and machinery, and the rapid advance of science generally, which the rapid advance of foreign relations has imposed upon every word is here given in extenso. Each and every word is fully illustrated and explained, forming excellent guides for the student of the Chinese and English languages. The work is bound in the most durable and elegant manner, and is indispensable to all Europeans residing in China, and to the natives, which very few indians resident in England and interested in China it cannot but be invaluable occasionally.

It comprises upwards of two thousand large quarto pages.
